	"Good bright medium yellow. Very subdued nose hints at yellow fruits, ginger and sexy smoky, spicy oak. Broad and suave on entry, then limey, tight and youthfully imploded in the middle, showing less early texture and sweetness than the White Bones. Conveys a strong soil character but this wine from a chalkier parcel than the White Bones strikes me as less minerally today. Finishes very suave but without quite the grip of the Bones. I may be underrating this extremely young chardonnay." - Stephen Tanzer, March 2014 - Reviewed by: Vinous - 93pts
