72383	2012 Domaine Lafage Tessellae Old Vines Grenache Syrah Mourvedre	$11.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2012 Tessellae Old Vines Cotes du Roussillon is a blend of 40% Grenache from 60-year-old vines, 40% Syrah and 20% Mourvedre (both from 20-year-old vines). The fruit was all aged 12 months in 1-year-old concrete tanks. A big, barbecue/smoky brisket-like nose intermixed with kirsch liqueur, lavender and pepper scents jumps from the glass of this complex, mid-weight, savory, mouthfilling red with soft, velvety tannins. This bistro-styled red wine should be enjoyed over the next several years." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts
74709	2012 Chateau Saint Roch Cotes du Roussillon Blanc Vieilles Vignes	$13.99	N/A	N/A
	"Composed of 80% Grenache Blanc and 20% Marsanne, the 2012 Vieilles Vignes Blanc comes from 50-year-old vines planted in limestone and clay soils. A delightful bouquet of caramelized honeyed grapefruit, white currants and other assorted citrus jumps from the glass of this crisp, dry, medium-bodied white. With surprising length and power, it reminded me of a restrained, more laid-back top white Hermitage — at a fraction of the price." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 89pts
74706	2012 Chateau Saint Roch Kerbuccio Maury Sec	$16.99	N/A	N/A
	"Most of the wine produced in this area is fortified sweet wine, and the 2012 Kerbuccio is from the newly created appellation of Maury Sec, which is a classification above Cotes du Roussillon Villages. From pure black schist soils, this blend of 40% Syrah, 30% Mourvedre and 30% Grenache aged in concrete offers wonderful flowery notes (violets) intermixed with melted chocolate, kirsch and a hint of Provencal garrigue. Full-bodied, rich, deep and totally dry, this is a seriously endowed, fleshy, full-throttle red to drink over the next 3-4 years." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts
71623	2012 Domaine des Deux Puits Muscat Sec	$11.99	N/A	N/A
	"More floral and perfumed, the 2012 Cotes Catalanes Muscat Sec is a decidedly delicious, up-front and fruit-forward effort that excels for its sheer drinkability. White peach, flowers, and hints of tangerine all show here, and it's medium-bodied, straightforward and dry on the palate, with a clean, crisp finish that keeps you coming back to the glass. In short, it's a delicious quaffer to enjoy over the coming year." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 89pts

	"This 100% Picpoul, Southern France's version of a Loire Valley Muscadet, is crisp and fresh with lots of grapefruit notes as well as a stony minerality and a light-bodied, straightforward personality. It is a good aperitif wine meant for uncritical drinking over the next year." - Robert Parker, Jr. - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 86pts

	"Made only for the U.S. market, the 2013 VDP Cotes Catalanes Cote d'Est (50% Grenache Blanc, 30% Chardonnay, 20% Marsanne, aged in stainless steel on lees) is beautifully crisp and pure, with juicy acidity giving lift to notions of buttered citrus, green herbs and honeyed minerality. Medium-bodied, lively and certainly delicious, it's a fantastic meal starter and should drink nicely for another year or two." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 88pts

49234	2010 Coume del Mas Galateo Banyuls	$34.99	N/A	N/A
	"As usual, from southwest-facing Grenache vineyards and aged in used barriques, the Coume del Mas 2010 Banyuls Galateo - tasted from tank - is distinctively buttery in texture as well as flatteringly glycerin-rich. Black raspberry confiture laced with vanilla and caramel picks up a mouthwatering and extremely welcome streak of salinity, which along with hints of berry skin and bitter dark chocolate make for a highly-stimulating, not to mention long, finish." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90 to 91pts

Sweet and sour cherry notes intermixed with hints of lavender and tobacco leaf emerge from this medium-bodied, fruit-forward red. It is meant to be consumed over the next year." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 87pts
