	"The color is bright, light cerise with pink hues. Vibrant and clear on the nose, with aromas of ripe cherries, raspberries, hints of flowers, and rose petal notes. On the palate it has a medium body, moderately high acidity and the slightest suggestion of very ripe tannins. Flavors are consistent with the aromas, with a light sensation of sweet grass and bubble gum. The finish is moderately long, with developing flavors that lead to complexity." Reviewed by: Producer

	Brilliant orange-pink. Intense, mineral-accented strawberry, cherry pit and blood orange aromas, along with a sexy floral overtone. Concentrated red fruit and lavender pastille flavors are supported by a spine of juicy acidity that adds definition and back-end cut. Closes very long and focused, featuring resonating minerality and a lingering floral quality. -- Josh Reynolds, June 2017 Reviewed by: Vinous - 92 pts - Reviewed by: Vinous - 92pts

	"The Dupeuble Beaujolais towers majestically over every other red on the market today yet retains the quaffable 'légèreté' we demand from this monumental appellation. At the same time, how can one ignore its eyeball-riveting color, its super concentrated body engorged with blackberries, blueberries, raspberries, olallieberries, boysenberries, cinnamon, cherry pit, violets, petunias, red currants, black currants and graham crackers? There is there, one might say, there. Multi-layered layers of sublime simplicity, a blood-boiling aftertaste, this is a palate hummer." Reviewed by: Producer

	"High-pitched, with savory and thyme notes leading the way for watermelon rind, peach and white cherry flavors. Shows a pretty stony echo on the finish. Drink now. 90,000 cases imported." -James Molesworth, Jun 2017Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 88 pts Limpid orange-pink. High-pitched aromas of fresh red berries and blood orange, along with hints of honeysuckle and peach. Silky and precise in the mouth, offering nicely concentrated strawberry, tangerine and floral pastille flavors that spread out steadily on the back half. Finishes minerally and long, showing suave, floral-driven persistence. -- Josh Reynolds, June 2017Reviewed by: Vinous - 90 pts - Reviewed by: Wine Spectator - 88pts

	"Intensely aromatic, the elegant lavender and violet floral notes of Fleur de Mer evoke the purple-dotted hillsides and romantic seaside villages of Provence. Ripe fruit notes of watermelon, cherry and raspberry highlight the refreshing, medium-bodied palate, while hints of citrus, rose petal and minerality add appealing complexity and crisp freshness. On the long and soft finish, flavors of ripe peach and succulent melon blend with the fresh herbal and floral notes of garrigue." Reviewed by: Producer

	"This is a fruit forward and fruity wine revealing red berries, fresh strawberry, dry palate of raspberries and spice. Effusive red berry fruit, loads on palate yet remains dry. Fruit balances nicely with the sugar. Gorgeous pink color. Effusive red berry fruit, framboise. Loads of essence of red berry fruit on the palate, but it's dry with herbs. Finishes long and very dry." ProducerReviewed by: Producer
