	"Sweet red and black currant fruit, spice box and herb aromas jump from the glass of this dark plum/garnet-hued 2008. As in most vintages, this is an equal part blend of Cabernet Franc and Merlot. Soft and complex, it should be consumed over the next 5-6 years." -Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 87pts
70969	2009 Chateau Daugay Saint Emilion	$32.99	N/A	N/A
	"A big-time sleeper of the vintage, this equal-part blend of Merlot and Cabernet Franc has put on weight since I tasted it from barrel. It displays wonderfully sumptuous blueberry and black raspberry fruit, hints of underbrush and forest floor, a rich, broad, medium to full-bodied mouthfeel, silky tannins, and a surprisingly long finish. This is one of the most reasonably priced wines of St.-Emilion." -Robert Parker, Jr. - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts

45191	2011 Chateau Larcis Ducasse Saint Emilion	$59.99	N/A	N/A
	"The wine exhibits a distinctive peppery, slightly herbaceous, exotic nose that initially is difficult to fathom. This rich, medium-bodied 2011 continues with a certain herbaceous streak that runs through the flavors. Nevertheless, there is impressive ripeness, concentration and density, and the tannins are velvety and well-integrated. If the green, peppery character calms down somewhat, my score should climb into the low 90s. However, this is not one of the top Larcis Ducasses made in the last 7-8 years." -Robert Parker, The Wine Advocate, 89 to 93 pts. "This is lovely, with floral notes at first, which are then followed by pure, precise blueberry, plum and blackberry fruit aromas and flavors. Features a silky texture, fine acidity and a buried mineral hint on the finish. Classy." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts

261812	2003 Chateau Canon La Gaffeliere	$89.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2003 is a soft, relatively evolved style of wine. Up-front and forward, with a complex, perfumed (smoke, incense, fruitcake) style, it offers creme de cassis, cherry, plum, fig, incense, and cedar characteristics on the palate. The round, opulent attack quickly fades in the finish. Nevertheless, it possesses plenty of appeal, and is the most accessible Canon-La-Gaffeliere I have tasted."
