A custom cuvee put together by Eric Solomon and Jean-Marc Lafage, it is a blend of 70% Syrah and 30% Grenache that spent one year in 80% concrete tank (Grenache) and 500-liter demi-muids (Syrah). From a Roussillon vineyard dominated by gallets routes that resembles many Chateaufeuf du Pape vineyards, the wine undergoes a long maceration of six weeks. The result is an inky/blue/purple-colored wine offering a big, sweet bouquet of blueberries, blackberries, acacia flowers, pepper and spice. This full-bodied, opulent, majestic dry red unleashes tremendous ripeness, richness and intensity. 	"My favorite vintage of this cuvee to date, the 2012 Nostre Pais Costieres de Nimes comes from the southern, cooler part of the appellation and was bottled in June of this year. A blend of 50% Grenache, 20% Syrah, 20% Mourvèdre and the balance Carignan and Cinsault, it was fermented with 25-50% whole clusters and aged half in 1-2 year old demi-muids and half in concrete tanks. Gorgeous black raspberry, cassis, licorice, wild herbs and crushed flowers all emerge from this medium to full-bodied, seamless and thrillingly pure 2012. 	"The 2012 Raats Family Red Jasper is based on 81% Cabernet Franc, 13% Malbec and a sprinkling of Bordeaux varieties. It has a tightly wound bouquet, a little more tertiary than the 2011 with blackberry, strawberry pastilles, cedar and dry tobacco. The palate is medium-bodied with a spicy opening. There is instantly good structure and focus here, well-judged acidity and a crisp, classy finish. There is a bit of swagger about this wine. Drink 2014-2020." - Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #209, Oct 2013 - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts
73808	2010 Pinyolet Seleccion	$19.99	N/A	N/A
	"Slightly more expensive, the 2010 Pinyolet Seleccion is a blend of 80% old vine Grenache and 20% Carinena (from vines planted in 1945 and 1928 respectively). The wine was aged eight months in 2-year old French oak barrels. It exhibits copious notes of damp earth, forest floor, and a fiery, Graves-like, volcanic smokiness that comes from the vineyard's soils. Rich, full-bodied and deep with plenty of kirsch, raspberry and black currant fruit characteristics, this mouthfilling red should drink well for 5-6 years." - Robert Parker - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts

86412	2013 St Hallett Gamekeeper's Shiraz Grenache	$11.99	N/A	N/A
	"A bright, youthful, crunchy red blend that has abundant cassis, raspberries, blueberries and cherries on offer. Some gentle spices, too. Really lively. The palate has fresh, crunchy appeal. Berries and cassis are framed in supple, velvet balls of tannins. A real fruit-soaked romp. Drink now." - January 27th, 2015 - Reviewed by: James Suckling - 93pts
67955	2010 First Drop Mother's Milk Shiraz	$19.99	N/A	N/A
	"Bright purple. Intensely perfumed aromas of black raspberry, boysenberry, violet and licorice, with notes of incense and star anise adding complexity. Lush and seamless in texture, with deep dark fruit compote flavors lifted by peppery spices. Finishes with strong punch and very good, floral-dominated persistence." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 91pts

82232	2014 Chateau Lilian Ladouys Saint Estephe (Futures)	$17.00	N/A	N/A
	"The Château Lilian-Ladouys 2014 is a blend of 55% Merlot, 40% Cabernet Sauvignon, 4% Cabernet Franc and 1% Petit Verdot cropped at 44hl/ha. Aged in 30% new oak from several cooperages, it veers towards fleshy red berry fruit on the nose with hints of dried herbs and sous-bois lending personality, something to talk about. The palate is medium-bodied with tobacco infused black fruit, masculine in style with good backbone and impressive precision on the finish. This Saint Estèpe cru has seen a rapid improvement in recent years and this is another fine wine to add to their roster. I expect the bottle sample to land at the upper end of the band and continue the upswing in fortunes since its acquisition by Jacky Lorenzetti." - Neal Martin, eRobertParker.com #218, Apr 2015 - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90 to 92pts

	"A custom cuvee and joint venture with importer Eric Solomon, the 2013 Tessellae Vieilles Vignes is 100% Carignan and comes from 70-year-old vines and the schist soils of Maury and Les Aspres. It is an off-the-charts value that offers up thrilling notes of black raspberry, chocolate, graphite, tar and licorice to go with a voluptuous, decadent, yet seamless and gorgeously pure feel on the palate. Seriously, this wine is smoking good and should thrill for 4-5 years, if not longer. 84213	2013 Domaine Lafage Tessellae Old Vines Grenache Syrah Mourvedre	$11.99	N/A	N/A
	"Another incredible wine that's shockingly good for the price, the 2013 Tessellae Old Vines checks in as a blend of 40% Grenache, 40% Syrah and 20% Mourvedre that was aged all in concrete tank. It offers brilliant notes of black cherries, blueberry, licorice, clove and spring flowers in its medium to full-bodied, gorgeously pure profile. Showing more and more finesse and elegance with time in the glass, as well as classic Roussillon minerality on the finish, it has loads of fruit and texture yet is never heavy, cumbersome or cloying. It's hard to believe you can get this quality for the price, but the consumer is the big winner here. Enjoy this rock star effort over the coming 4-5 years, although I wouldn't be surprised to see it evolve for longer." - Jeb Dunnuck, eRobertParker.com #215, Oct 2014 - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 94pts

	"A newer wine that is composed of 57% Cabernet Sauvignon and 43% Shiraz, sourced from the Barossa Valley, Wrattenbully, McLaren Vale, Padthaway and Langhorne Creek. The nose is quiet striking, there's a nicely crafted oak element layered into the mix, the Shiraz comes across flamboyant and chocolatey, the Cabernet adds leafy notes. There's a little dark olive and plenty of dark fruit flavours on the palate, great depth and well-judged ripeness. This is succulent and rich, quite silky and even, showing plums and spice, deep red and purple fruit flavours, some gentle mocha oak and smooth, approachable layered tannins." - Reviewed by: James Suckling - 92pts

	"The 2010 Señorío de P. Pecina Crianza is a Tempranillo with a dash of Graciano and Garnacha aged in oak barrels for two years, which is way beyond the requirements to get the official Crianza category. It has a strong note of licorice with nuances of Chinese ink and leather over a core of spices and distant cherries. The palate feels quite polished, with almost unnoticeable tannins, good acidity and overall balance. It is very drinkable and appropriate for food." - Luis Gutierrez, eRobertParker.com #218, Apr 2015 - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts
