72799	2012 Vitiano Red	$9.99	$7.99*	20%
	"A blend of Sangiovese, Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon. This food-friendly red delivers vibrant berry tones and freshness over a medium frame. Again, the value is impressive." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 87pts
66998	2012 Falesco Merlot	$11.99	N/A	N/A
	"The 2012 Merlot is another knockout value wine. Riccardo Cotarella dedicated much of the first part of his winemaking career to Merlot. You can feel his familiarity with the grape here, even on a basic wine like this. Softly rendered oak tones wrap gently around a core of dark berry fruit. The results are delicious." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 88pts
64757	2008 Colpetrone Sagrantino de Montefalco	$24.99	$22.99*	8%
	"The 2008 Sagrantino di Montefalco is gorgeous in this vintage. Mocha, espresso, grilled herbs, tobacco and plums are woven together in this full-bodied voluptuous wine. All the elements are very much in the right place. Although not especially varietal, the 2008 boasts considerable depth, richness and power, all in a fairly sexy style for this wine. Plums, mocha, tobacco and incense all add complexity on the finish. The 2008 is decidedly overt and flashy. It is also one of the very best values in Sagrantino." - Antonio Galloni - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts
57239	2011 Antinori Chardonnay Cervaro della Sala	$44.99	N/A	N/A
	"The blend of Chardonnay and Grechetto opens to golden rays of luminous brilliance that glimmer through the glass. The bouquet is beautifully shaped by toasted almond, vanilla, clove, orange zest, stone fruit and honey. Mineral notes add dimension to what is otherwise a super-rich and balanced mouthfeel. The 2011 vintage shows unique energy and intensity." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 94pts
69370	2007 Scacciadiavoli Sagrantino di Montefalco	$44.99	$39.99*	11%
	"The 2007 Montefalco Sagrantino shows off layers of dark fruit, juniper berries and sweet medicinal herbs in a sumptuous expression of Sagrantino. All of the elements come together nicely here, as the hard Sagrantino tannins and some of grape's wildness have been tamed but without the loss of too much varietal character. A lush, refined finish rounds things out nicely." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 91pts

	"The 2007 Sagrantino di Montefalco Collepiano is superb. A beautifully open, expressive core of fruit dazzles from start to finish, while silky tannins show an elegant, rare side of Sagrantino. Sweet varietal notes wrap around the poised, centered finish." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 94pts
24029	2005 Scacciadiavoli Sagrantino di Montefalco	$44.99	$39.99*	11%
	"A very pretty, remarkably soft-textured Sagrantino. The wine reveals gorgeous inner perfume in its vibrant dark fruit, with terrific overall balance. The only thing missing is a little more varietal definition. Still this is a highly pleasing and accessible Sagrantino to enjoy over the next few years." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts
68583	2012 Arnaldo Caprai Grechetto Dei Colli Martani Grecante	$17.99	$15.99*	11%
	"Pale straw. Apple, nectarine and lemony fresh herbs on the bright nose. On the palate, soft ripe apple and apricot flavors are lifted by accents of lime, citrus peel and white flowers. Bright, harmonious acidity contributes to an impression of elegance. This strikes me as one of the best, deepest Grecantes made to date by Caprai." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 89pts

	"The 2011 Montefalco Rosso exhibits hearty aromas of ripe fruit, spice and leather. The fleshy consistency of this blend of Sangiovese (70%), Sagrantino, Merlot and Cabernet wraps tightly around the palate with firm tannins and fresh berry fruit flavors. Oven roasted pasta like lasagna would match the fresh acidity that is delivered by the Sangiovese." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 87pts
