75329	2012 Celler Cal Pla Mas d'en Compte Black Slate	$18.99	N/A	N/A
	"From one of Priorat's coolest micro-climates, this 2012 Black Slate is composed of 60% old vine Grenache (60+ years) and 40% old Carignan (80 years), and aged 12 months in concrete tanks, old wood foudres, and two-year-old barrels. It reveals lots of licorice, crushed wet rock, sweet blueberry and black raspberry fruit characteristics along with a full-bodied, moderately tannic mouthfeel. The tannins are sweet and well-integrated, and the wine is drinking beautifully already. For a relatively expensive Spanish appellation, this is an outright steal!" - Robert Parker, Jr. - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts

	"Dark, almost opaque, deep red. Fresh, captivating floral aroma, mingled with notes of red berry fruit. Expressive; reminiscent of ripe plums, strawberries and citrus fruit; well balanced, with delicate tannins and well-integrated wood; hints of licorice, wild herbs and minerals are present in a stylish, lasting finish." - Reviewed by: Producer

	"The evolving seriousness of Terrasses eventually left room for 'Camins del Priorat.' Alvaro Palacios had never wanted to be known solely for expensive "trophy" wines, and with Camins, he found the opportunity to create something special. Drawing on his wealth of vineyard sources, Alvaro is aiming to produce a wine that is affordably priced, but which also stays true to his vision of Priorat-powerful but elegant, approachable but restrained." - Reviewed by: Producer

	"Dark cherry color with violet reflections. High robe, bright with abundant tears on the glass. Intense, expressive and concentrated aromas, round and enjoyable. Black fruit prevails and then gives way to floral notes, spices, toasted notes (which after a while become more roasted) and deep mineral nuances. Bulky and powerful attack. A fleshy red wine, with abundant fruity aromas, very tasty, with an unctuous palate. Excellent acidity and ripe tannins. Long, balanced and very persistent finish." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 93pts

	"Deep ruby. Powerful, mineral-accented cherry and dark berry aromas are complicated by notes of anise, pungent herbs and floral oil. Lush and expansive, offering intense bitter cherry and blackberry flavors lifted by a zesty mineral nuance. Shows excellent energy and focus on the youthfully tannic finish, which leaves sweet dark fruit and spicecake notes behind. Give this extremely young wine some air or cellar time." - Reviewed by: International Wine Cellar - 92pts
	"The 2011 Clos Mogador feels ripe, serious and young. Rene Barbier likes to pick ripe grapes but without any raisins making it into the vats. The wine is a blend of the different grapes in his Clos Mogador vineyard (it's just one of a handful of wines officially awarded the single-vineyard label by the Catalan wine institutions): Garnacha, Carinena, Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah. But the wine speaks more of the place than the grapes, with notes of slate, thyme, rosemary, sage, lavender, black cherries and a supple palate, full-bodied, with pungent flavors, round, velvety tannins and a long aftertaste. This is a superb effort for such a warm vintage, the warmest and driest in Priorat since 2003, and great value for the quality. 30,000 bottles are produced of this prodigious, powerful but balanced Priorat." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 96pts

	"The 2009 Martinet Bru ("Bru" meaning "dark") comes from vines located near the town of Falset and facing towards Montsant, enjoying a comparatively fresh microclimate. A blend of 40% Garnacha and 40% Syrah complemented by Cabernet and Merlot, it has an adorable bouquet with fresh, brambly black fruit mixed with crushed stone and chalky notes, though the aromatics were initially tight and demanded coaxing from the glass. The palate is full-bodied with a crisp, spicy entry and a touch of Schezuan pepper, expanding nicely towards the liquorice and black pepper-tinged finish, which gently grips the mouth." - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 90pts

	"Putting your nose in the glass of the white 2011 Nelin makes you think the wine is not made from grapes, but from rocks, it's pure minerals, concentrated and complex. I'm sorry to disappoint you, but the wine is of course produced with a blend of Garnacha Blanca, Macabeo with some Viognier and other white grapes which aged for 15 months in a mixture of oak vats and terracotta amphorae. Balance, elegance, harmony are just three words that quickly come to my mind. I feel a level of precision and purity which I had not seen in Nelin before. This is a superb Priorat white that should age gracefully in bottle. One of the best whites in Priorat, and at a relatively good price. Very impressive!" - Reviewed by: The Wine Advocate - 94pts
